Take a look at the lines
In the jigsaw of humankind
What's there to see
Who reaches for stars

Who'll sit and stare
And confuse their vision
With pictures not there
Is the real world so far

Dreams come from life
No not for everyone
Dreams come from life
Here they go on and on

Cos I, oh I, oh I never would have thought of that

Because dreams come from life
No not for everyone
Dreams come from life
Here they go on and on

Microsoft touch
The future embraces us
Dreams turn to dust
There's nobody here

Because dreams come from life
No not for everyone
Dreams come from life
Here they go on and on

Cos I, oh I, oh I never would have thought of that
