"Far away"

And it will stop
a day that lasts forever
Just as the sun sets
It will rise at dawn
for ever after
And I'm sorry
if it aint that sweet Just Living in the world you meet
But that should never stop you

Because far away
is close at hand
There in the drifting sands
And far away is close at hand
In the imaginations
of every woman and every man
And I'm sorry if it aint that cool
Just living in the world of fools

But it will stop
All that you can see
Is there to tell you
Rain must fall
For the sun to shine
there down upon you
And I'm Sorry if it aint that cool
Just living in the world of fools
But that should never stop you
