"The Oath"

Visit "The Oath" on MotoLyrics.com

Despite all the things I have done
Some wrong, some right and some just for fun
Despite all the things I have said
I'm quite alright with who I am today

I can't deny that I have done more faults
Than I hoped to do
But I have always tried to make things right
So what more could I do

Ref:

Friends I need, and Foes I gladly insult
This is an oath, just for you
Friends in need, and people I accidentally hurt
This is an oath, just for you

2

Despite all the things I have heard
Some good, some bad some small town crap
Despite all the things I have seen
I would not trade my life for the world

I can't erase my past and
Even if I could I wouldn't
Since all my recent deeds
Have led me up to where I am today

Ref:

People I feed, and foes I proudly watch die bleeding
This is an oath made just for you
Just words indeed, But I swear I will die trying
And that's an oath Made just for you
