Some day, I know you'll be far away
I'll be right here to stay, give me one day
Baby, baby, don't, run away, come see me
Some day, I'll be right here today, just give me love,
Rae

To my hood, I'm always there for you, rain, hail, sleet Snow, and I'm there for all the underprivileged, yo we here
My life is all in your soul, daily, since nana left us
She took all of your blessings, 'cuz she been there

My life change, yo, could never though be without you, yo
It's strange when I want it to rain
On my best friend's grooming, we all had visions of you
We broke nights, God, knowing you cared, it's time to move on

Peace, only for a minute and I'mma break out Come back and kiss you on your feet, here
I love my hood, I love my there, yo
The older we get, we understand, you might tear

Some day, I know you'll be far away
I'll be right here to stay, give me one day
Baby, baby, don't, run away, come see me
Some day, I'll be right here today, just give me love,
Rae

You keep the little young ones, happy, true Graduations occurred, you look so pretty and new Look at the sky, all blue, all old people with you Facilities mailing, jail brothers miss you

Wow, it gets crazy when I think about the money you made me
You slipped me away, but Jakes tried to rade me Nighshifts, smokin' on spliffs, you kept yellin'
"Carry your fifth, the down the block is gay"

They keep police invadin' your space, we can't live Plus, they gassin' the mayor, them wanna give you away
We won't have that, suburban people mad at the fact That you be gettin' more company then them, they just be scared of that

"Hood", look at your name, spell it backwards
Yo, "Dooh", that's what they yellin' in vain
You the realest, the most livest, fliest, you part of life
I gotta give you love, 'cuz you gave it God and life

Some day, I know you'll be far away
I'll be right here to stay, give me one day
Baby, baby, don't, run away, come see me
Some day, I'll be right here today, just give me love,
Rae

Whoever said you ain't do right by me, they frontin', yo
They couldn't understand that we was a team
I used to come out, hear you words, talk to me, walk with me, brother
Cool, try to be successful and dream

The city lights is on, now, they wanna turn 'em off Try'nna start some, actin' like you never made a penny for 'em
Dun, they doin' you dirty, we had Summer Youth for that, though
No need to cry, never get worried

You gon' live forever, word to mother
'Cuz she raised you right, and you got fifty-one brothers
I sat with the trees and had conversations at bees
We talked about throwin' money up, landscapin' your knees

You forget that, something to talk about
Show me where to take the check, pay these suckas off and be out There'll never be another place, everybody happy to see
That's why I keep coming back to you, peace

Some day, I know you'll be far away
I'll be right here to stay, give me one day
Baby, baby, don't, run away, come see me
Some day, I'll be right here today, just give me love,
Rae

Some day, I know you'll be far away
I'll be right here to stay, give me one day
Baby, baby, don't, run away, come see me
Some day, I'll be right here today, just give me love,
Rae
