Fly as the new five, live as a white man with black skin powerful grimeys, who eat raw like chinese steady cases of coke boat loads of good ol dough we carry bags to medina from bagdia feed me a spanish half black massive back thick in the legs bank account stacks a nigga with a liable piece of gold a ranch made of brick white picket fence vision my dick six horses four champays crib like holyfield build my slowly grow G and a lesson building in manifestin keep the stress off your chest then getting money like mexicans live as a corner with hard rocks and big nines and dimes im only part 2 and you a dart extinguish gentlemen who love getting dick sucked hate comical rap but kill men for 10 bucks the palm lady spit on my grave and said chef you stayed paid one shell hit you i fell with you and til then blow forever keep family snakes away you got a daughter to treasure have twins name one ceasar, female call anesha we out to fiji on easter good bottle of wine nine on me dwelling on time wearing bally sneaker watch phillip stein mad gratin my waves 101 E.X exolero behind me, dumb struck meat heads thinking of the days i got robbed, not for money when i mean albums they couldnt catch it i fouled them but now more aggressive, checks look special too thru the knowledge young boy we proffessionals
