[Chorus: x2]

Yes ya'll
We movin' at the speed of life
Aluminate, the bad and we movin' on
Cumulate, knowledge in amounts
Would it make the people bounce
To the music in surround

[Verse 1:]

Thats me
Ridin' in back of a taxi
Gotta go home or I can't sleep
Que the telephone and be alone
To advance when it had to be
Psychos, caught in middle of a typo
Act like you didn't know life goes
The world fair ain't no fair
When you workin' at the sideshow
Well, you find a little piece of Hell, I hope there's a mirror in your Cell, to break everyday you wake up to you and take a look at yourself, now
Calm down, just another tear from the Sad clown, take another year put it
On the ground, spread it all around little gas and imagine its all gonna pass like

[Verse 2:]

Make the people moan to the moment you get it
Move to the movement the moment use it
Listen with your mind, but just don't lose it
Find the time to fuse it with the life you choosin'

[Chorus:]

Yes ya'll
We movin' at the speed of life
Aluminate, the bad and we movin' on
Cumulate, knowledge in amounts
Would it make the music count
Put the music in surround

[Verse 3:]

Make songs, the moody took you dead wrong
Wrong or right, I fight for the morning light
Catch sight of this child of the wild moon
Consume the wild shrooms laughing at your cartoons
On a barstool trying to stay sane
And maintain this thorough blood
Drinkin' wolfs bain, fuck what you say
You're tryin' to make a fake connection like a toupee

[Verse 4:]

My thoughts come mildly affected
By you and the light you projected
No choice but to clash with a battle
You had me here to cast a shadow
One seed would grow your belief
But if we agreed, no one would bleed
Can't lose the need to struggle
Just another piece of the puzzle
Fuck you, Bust you
What I think is right for who
Throw your hands up tryin' to catch the truth
Set the preferences or burn
Cause its your world but you world don't turn
Make it hot, try to make it out
Sittin' in the same spot same vacant house
Get get get proud get loud
And you still don't know what I'm talkin' bout now

[Chorus: x2]

Yes ya'll
We movin' at the speed of life
Aluminate, the bad and we movin' on
Cumulate, knowledge in amounts
Would it make the people bounce
Put the music in surround

[Verse 5:]

You leave, you try
You laugh, you cry
You did, you lie
You live, you die
You will, you wont
You feel, you don't
You heal, you crack
And I promise still I got your back

[Verse 6: x3]

You leave, and you try
You laugh, and you cry
You did, and you lie

You live, and you die
You will, and you wont
You feel, and you don't
You heal, and you crack
And I promise still I got your back
