Lyrics by P. Wagner

On a dusty winding road, luck is not for free.

If you did like you were told, you will never see.

Just give me your heartblood...

Can it be a sin to speak in the tongue of freedom?

You will only win if you try the best to be you.

Just give me your heartblood...

Warfare in a sick society.

Out there give it all or leave it be.

No fear! What do you mean 'security'?

Who cares about you? You'll only hear:

Give me your heartblood...
