During the sessions for "Missing Link" we wrote an instrumental song on this somber theme. It's finished now. The words were written at the beginning of the Yugoslavian war.

Oh Lord Jesus, come down from your cross see what's going on, see what's going on.
And meanwhile your land is getting lost,
take your brother home, he is dead and gone.

The house is burning, man stopped turning compromising, paralysing, what a drag

He had held his hand wide open but his neighbor left it out long forgotten wounds break open

I can't help you watching out
I have seen no sign of life

Hey, you soldier, spare your sister's life don't turn out the light, don't you be afraid.
Don't leave this land mine here in our street this is not a job, killing people's not a job.

Man is burning, world stopped turning terrorizing, compromising not at all.

He had held his hand wide open but his neighbour left it out
long forgotten wounds break open
I can't help you watching out
I have seen no sign of life
