And did they teach you love?
Yes, they did but poor and hidden
And did they teach you death?
Yes, they did but just a part of it

What does that mean, a part of it?
It means that they taught us how to kill
They taught it and they practiced it
They never told us how to die
Death's place in life and how to face it
See how sad they end their lives

And if I ask these questions
What would you say if the answer's given the same time?
And if you know these questions
Why can't you see that it's more than just a state of mind?

And did they teach to hate?
Yes, they taught it and they stirred it
On the so called enemy
Not on the own misery

What did they do with their own lives?
They only did what you'd expect
After the lessons they had, had They've never seen the other way
The might freedom in their minds
They will never reach their size

And if I ask these questions
What would you say if the answer's given the same
time?
And if you know these questions
Why can't you see that it's more than just a state of mind?

No, no, no, no

In a way we're data banks, information collectors
And all for that we contend

Is a false program inside, we just need to get it right
Check it out what you have learned

And you will learn to love
You will even learn to die
And you will learn 'bout hate
In a way that is meant

And you'll ask these questions
And you'll ask these questions
And you'll ask these questions
And you'll ask these questions
