When the world's gone mad compassion dies
Soldiers killing for their thrills
Making war just for the sake of war
There's no future left than death

Leave me be, misery
Leave me be

Weep with the children
And starve with the prisoners
Before you scream for revenge

Sorrowful women
With tears in their hollow eyes
This is no justice, this is the price of war
The price of war

Some came running to the military
Misled by a false ideal
Believing guns could solve a problem, still
Blind to see they only kill

Weep with the children
And starve with the prisoners
Before you scream for revenge

Sorrowful women
With tears in their hollow eyes
This is no justice, this is the price of war
The price of war

Ripped off, from the middle
Ripped off, from head to toes
Ripped off, multikilling
Ripped off, guts and bones

Ripped off, from the middle
Ripped off, from head to toes
Ripped off, multikilling
Ripped off, guts and bones

When the world's gone mad compassion dies

Soldiers killing for their thrills
Making war just for the sake of war
There's no future left than death

Weep with the children
And starve with the prisoners
Before you scream for revenge

Sorrowful women
With tears in their hollow eyes
This is no justice, this is no justice

You'd watch the dying
Lay hands on their bleeding wounds
Before you scream for war, don't you scream for
This is no justice, this is the price of war
