You'll never love her like I love her
Cause I tried
All of the time

There's no one else I know
Who makes me feel so, oh
I never wanna see that girl go
Stay all of the time
All of the time

But she's not here tonite
And if she's out with you
That's just not right
I'd really hate to have to start a fight
But I think that I might
I think that I might

Cause everywhere she is
I wanna be
And when I'm holding her it makes me weak
We've got a kind of love that's hard to see
But your eyes are tearing her away from me
So leaving you will be fine
You tell another story
I'm drawing the line
I end up in the middle
All of the time
All of the time

And everywhere she is
I wanna be
And when I'm holding her it makes me weak
We've got a kind of love that's hard to see
But your eyes are tearing her away from me
So leaving you will be fine
You tell another story
I'm drawing the line
I end up in the middle
All of the time

All of the time

All of the time
All of the time
I really love her
All of the time
I can't stop thinking of her
All of the time
You got in the way
All of the time
