Only a girl x2

Things start to fall together when
He's introduced to Heather;
That night, was quite a sight...

In classic Jesse style, he tripped
Over his words and down the aisle
And all the while, she's (only a girl)

Only a girl - but there's something about her
Only a girl - so he can't live without her
And why?
I probably wish she was mine.

It just takes a day, he's making it
Far far too complicated
For shame, but just the same

"its fine", he tries to tell himself
He's gonna need some help
'Cos she will never be (only a girl)

Only a girl - but there's something about her
Only a girl - so he can't live without her
And why?
I probably wish she was mine.

After this time I'll give it up
I never knew, now I won't know, love
But only 'cos I can't get enough
Not of the girl,
Only the girl...

Only a girl - but there's something about her
Only a girl - so he can't live without her
And why?
I probably wish she was mine.
