Did you ever wake one day and
Wonder what you'd lost
Was your life a hidden dream that
Only now you know the cost

There is no re-run
Won't you hear me true
Do what's yours to be done
And the world she smiles on you

Did you ever love someone and
Never let them know
Emotion bursting at you seams but
Too afraid to let it show

There is no re-run
Won't you hear me true
Live second to none
And the world she smiles on you

Don't you know you're a blessing
Put upon this earth
Can't you hear her calling
Realise your true worth

Are you gonna live your life or
Let it slept away
So busy waiting for tomorrow that you
Miss today

There is no re-run
Won't you hear me true
Sell your dream for no-one
And the world she smiles on you

Oh there is no re-run
Won't you hear me true
Turn bright as the sun
And the world she smiles on you
