"Only A Fool"

I feel a cold wind in July,
And a hot rain in December,
When I think of all your lies,
And how it hurts me to remember.
Love's a game you played so well,
When I thought you loved me only.

(Chorus) Only a fool would cry for you.
Only a fool would try for you.
Try to hold on,
While love is gone.
Only a fool would dream...
Only a fool would dream of you.
Only a fool would scheme to do
All that I can.
All that I can,
To hold you here with me...

You come around when you want my touch,
And you fill me with desire.
I need you oh so much,
But the heat's gone from your fire.
You wear a smile all over your face,
Even when you're loving me...

(Chorus)

(Chorus)
