Your name makes me shiver
I will not refuse to be here
I make you out to be bad
And you make me out to be wrong

Cool bitter taste of winter
Long lasting trees that wither
Colder was my mind inside
And I will not die tonight

I will not break
And neither will my soul
You think you can take me
Over and over so slow
I will not take
You to the other side
You think you can break me
Over and over I die

Everyday I feel like I am gone
Done with these troubles
I make myself out to be a hero
But you crush right back to a zero

Cool bitter taste of winter
Long lasting trees that wither
Colder was my mind inside
And I will not die tonight

I will not break
And neither will my soul
You think you can take me
Over and over so slow
I will not take
You to the other side
You think you can break me
Over and over I die

I lied (x 4)
I tried (x 4)
I cried (x 4)

I died (x 4)

I will break
And neither will my soul
You think you can take me
Over and over so slow
I will not take
You to the other side
You think you can break me
Over and over I die
