Read me through like a book open for you
Let me through to see you

I never read about, the troubles you haven't grew out
Of the things that we used to do, the troubles that crowd you

We are, are us
We are, stop us
Left in the cold
To be alone
And never come back
To the relapse

The times through and through for me and you
Let me in to be like you

I never read about, the troubles you haven't grew out
Of the things that we used to do, the troubles that
crowd you

Opening me
Telling you please
And remembering
That...
That these are not my problems
These are not my sins
These are not my issues
To be crumbling in
That...
That these are not my problems
These are not my sins
These are not my issues
To be crumbling in

We are, are us
We are, stop us
To be alone
And never come back
To the relapse

We are, are us
We are, stop us
To be alone
And never come back
To the relapse
