Revert back to the days when we were friends
How did you see me then I wasn't a puppet
I was treated like a miscreant and tortured
Folded under my own loses I carry out my sin
Will I ever win NO! for this timing of relent
I will case up my pride and throw it in the ocean
Pop a blister to be broken apart from you
But there is one thing you have yet to do to me

Please would you just kill me
Just pull the blade and watch me die
I don't want to live here anymore
I need a new life (this ones gone)

Because these are my dreams and yet to be broken
I skate on my own blood but don't use a token
Like the devils playground for the children to play
But yet to be surprised as the death begins day
So many people dream and to many wrought
These are the types of things the world can do without
I wish I could stay but I am afraid have to leave
So please one last time scream this with me

Please would you just kill me
Just pull the blade and watch me die
I don't want to live here anymore
I need a new life (this ones gone)

Oh my god I am out of life
Please leave me here to die
I love you all you were so kind
But this is it it is my time

Please would you just kill me
Just pull the blade and watch me die
I don't want to live here anymore
I need a new life (this ones gone)

Please would you just kill me
Just pull the blade and watch me die
I don't want to live here anymore

I need a new life (this ones gone)
