Now there is a light in the dark some will say
There is a grace up high
There is a beauty that some can behold
Not I
Not I

There is a power that's felt from the shore
There is a force that won't break
But all of these things to me are no more
I've changed
I've changed

What in the hell have you done?
Cast aside all that you love
The sorrows you'll never outrun

Zero
Nothing for you is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole

How many times have you felt all alone
How many tears have you cried
Called out in vain for a god to behold
Inside
Inside

How many fires you let die in your heart
How many storm's must you face
Left out to fight for yourself in the cold
No faith
No faith

So nothing to lean on this time
Nothing is left to decide
All that you've known you'll deny

Zero
Nothing for you is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole

Zero
Nothing for you is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole

Burnt out
Surrender you can't take no more
And just cry out
Surrender your faith is no more

What in the hell have you done?
Cast aside all that you loved
The sorrows you'll never outrun
Just look at what you have become

Zero
Nothing for you is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole
Zero
Nothing for you is ever good enough
Zero
Nothing makes you whole
