What have you done to me?
I'm staring at the ceiling
I need a plaster for the heart
To stop the bleeding
'Cause everywhere I see your face
I wonder who will take my place

Why did you go?
I need some answers now to get on by
Please, tell me why did you go
All these questions why stuck inside my mind, yeah, yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Why, why

And all the things you said to me
I was so damn naive
Now I'm breathing in the dark
I can't believe it
Cause everywhere I see your face
I wonder who will take my place

Why did you go?
I need some answers now
To get on by
Please tell me why did you go
All these questions why
Stuck inside my mind
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why

Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Why, why, why...

Oh oh oh, you are somewhere out there
Oh oh oh, but you don't care about me
Oh oh oh, the more I think about it
I don't understand a thing

Why did you go?
I need some answers now
To get on by
Please tell me why did you go
All these questions why
Stuck inside my mind
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Yeah yeah
Why, a reason why
Give me a reason
Why, a reason why
Why, why, why...
