my name used to roll of your tongue in the heat of ...
passion

*sigh*

i wish that love was easy and everlasting maybe you just love to hard maybe i just love to free but when you jumped ship, baby you took a piece of me they say rome wasnt built in one day so some how, maybe some way you can see past my imperfections and i can just love you for who you were if time heals all wounds when you 'gon come around soon maybe, we can try again
