In the beginning there was you and I
So much to love, no one could take that away
And now through all this time
It's hard to believe that you wanted to hurt me
But you did
Remember what we had, it seemed like yesterday
Your strong embrace and that gentle touch of your lips
All I have are these memories of you and me
Why did you throw it all away?

You threw it all away for a one night stand with her
You threw it all away and now you want to hold my love
again
Baby there's just no way
My feelings for you boy have changed in every way
You threw it all away
You had your chance to have my love
But you went and threw it all away

I'm in your thoughts now
Why wasn't I there when you were with her then Temptation took your hand and led you away
I thought our love was strong, but then that Thoughts of you and her are tearing me up inside
I will never go back; I'm staying here with my pride
You proved me wrong when I thought I had trust in you
You proved me oh so wrong
Why did you throw it all away?

You threw it all away for a one night stand with her
You threw it all away and now you want to hold my love
again
Baby there's just no way
My feelings for you boy have changed in every way
You threw it all away
You had your chance to have my love
But you went and threw it all away

It's a shame that it had to end like this You'll always be there for me to reminisce
But I must turn my back because of what you did

Why did you do it, you blew it,
You threw it all away

You threw it all away for a one night stand with her
You threw it all away and now you want to hold my love
again
Baby there's just no way
My feelings for you boy have changed in every way
You threw it all away
You had your chance to have my love
But you went and threw it all away
Threw it all away
Threw it all away
Threw it all away
