So come on down, and try your hand at the oldest game in town
Pull up a chair and dont be scared, you've got to play it round by round Spin the wheel and take a hit, it doesnt matter what you chose
You can sink your battle ship, but theres a good chance you will loose

A little lady walking down the street
And she was born in a good and nice town
You think you've got what it takes to be her man So you try about and ask a lady if she would like to meet

Maybe this time things will go your way You're never going to win unless you play

Break down and take the chances
Nevermind the circumstances
Break down and keep on playing Roll the dice and bet it all
Put the quarter in and make the call

When the odds are bad, your luck is down and you dont feel much like playing Think about the fun you had, and listen to what I'm saying
You could spend your life inside and never bet the farm

Maybe things this time will go your way
You never gunna win unless you play

Breakdown and take the chances
Nevermind the circumstances
Breakdown keep on playing
Roll the dice and bet it all

Breakdown and take the chances
Nevermind the circumstances

Breakdown keep on playing
Roll the dice and bet it all
Put a quarter in and make the call

You've got to breakdown
Woah
Baby
