"My Girlfriend"

I go to sleep so alone
No one by my side to call it their home
The emptiness is killing me
Now you tell me that you're leaving
How can I let it be?

I want to be the only one for you
Won't you please just tell me what to do
My girlfriend lives inside my head
My girlfriend lives inside my head

I go to sleep so alone
No one by my side to call it their home
The emptiness is killing me
Now you tell me that your leaving
How can I let it be?

I want to be the only one for you
Won't you please just tell me what to do
My girlfriend lives inside my head
My girlfriend lives inside my head

She lives inside my head
