Never found out why you left him,
but this answer begs a question,
Too blind to see tomorrow, too broke to beg or borrow.
Young and Stupid, left wide open Hearts are wasted, lives are broken
One more point of contention,
I need some intervention Approached with vague intentions betray my short attention span The distance, bridge the border Beg forgiveness, round the corner
Everytime I look for you the sun goes down
And I stumble when this whole thing runs aground
I left another message, you are never around But everytime I look for you the sun goes down once more
Will the last one out, please shut the door
More time apart will give you, a few more months to argue Is this to much to live through, it always seems to far to drive

The point home, send more letters Pray tomorrow, ends up better
Everytime I look for you the sun goes down
And I stumble when this whole thing runs aground
I left another message, you are never around
But everytime I look for you the sun goes down once
Will the last one out, please shut the door
I never did do anything that she asked,
I never let what happened, stay in the past
I never did quite understand what she meant,
In spite of everything, in spite of everything
Everytime I look for you the sun goes down
And I stumble when this whole thing runs aground
I left another message, you are never around
But everytime I look for you the sun goes down
And I stumble when this whole thing runs aground
I left another message, you are never around
but everytime I look for you the sun goes down
