cautiously divine
more than i could bargain
boast, well what am i?
speak with us, vanity

i owe my pride
i owe
a genius
a natural
the floor my lord
the floor
it's where i felt comfortable

will i learn in time?
good god what exactly am i?

carefree brave new machine dive in, fuck gravity

walk me home from bed
come dream
settle in my arms
just sleep
you don't have to die for sins
you can't commit

(get off the cross)
i have seen you before,
in my mind (holy what a way to go
father what do i become?
a fire little work
a fire little work
faster wash me with your hands gently, i'll never understand fear is not enough
fear is not enough)
