"Focus"

The doctor said i need some rest
He placed his hands up on my head
The pain did not grow any less
But the man sure did

If i could just focus
Just let it out

From time to time
I watch this place
Make sure of all
Who anticipate
Make some efforts
To force myself to think of others
In the end it just ends in a ball
Of success and despair

When i'm gone, what will be there?
If it makes any sense at all
I hope that you're not and it's not
Who we are?
Our strength is our judgement
All others who make it out
They believe

All that you need is with me
