i've got some hefty plans but i've got time
i've got some dirty hands and they're all mine help me paint the picture i love simple conversation it's easy to hold

you're never gonna get it you're never gonna get it right and you squeeze
am i free? well i was never one to give up to

i'm in a constant altered state i'm so afraid to let it out i might escape if i embrace what i create, i better not.
the wave is tidal, smith is the idol oh i just can't complain at all the rest is what i make i better start or else i'll be late

i'm ready to go back home to the house i built to the face i long for sing the songs that i know you love and it's wonder how i became and i wonder how i'll behave i guess it's simple how we mingle

on this tiny bed.
