Mom, please tell me what to do, I'm so dissappointed in you You said those words that made me cry, And you always wondered why Why I sing My Lullaby... Mom, please hurry home to me, I waited up so patiently You sit down and you start to cry, But you never ask me why Why I sing my Lullaby Why I sing my Lullaby.. Was it my fault they lead you in the wrong direction? Was it my fault they didn't show you any affection? I show you when I start to cry Still you always wonder why Why I sing My Lullaby... Mom,why love me if you're cold Youll just get bitter then grow old Ask me when I start to weep Then I'll tell you in my sleep Why I sing My Lullaby Why I sing My Lullaby Why I sing My Lullaby Why I sing
My Lullaby Why I sing My Lullaby Why I sing My Lullaby
