A day where I haven't thought of you hasn't passed yet

No matter how hard I try not to, even if I get sick on liquor and fall asleep

In the end I think about you again

Even if I purposely lean into another person's embrace, even if I do that

When I open my eyes in the morning I'm so alarmed, seeing the phone

Remembering last night

Because I might have called you while I was drunk

I get so frightened

I drink in order to forget you

But when I get sick

I remember the girls I had met to forget you

Making me think of you more

A day where I haven't thought of you hasn't passed yet

No matter how hard I try not to, even if I get sick on liquor and fall asleep

In the end I think about you again

Even if I purposely lean into another person's embrace, even if I do that

All day today busily positioning myself with work

Crazily leaving my body to do so

I kept making work without end, in case I might think of you

But even then

Living busily in order to try to forget you

But I don't know my reason for living

Even if I try to forget you to the best of my ability, even for a moment

When I find the time I think of you again

A day where I haven't thought of you hasn't passed yet

No matter how hard I try not to, even if I get sick on liquor and fall asleep

In the end I think about you again
Even if I purposely lean into another person's embrace, even if I do that

Do you think of me
Do you wonder if I'm lonely
Or have you already forgotten me and lost yourself in a new love
