the girl would lay awake all night until she finds that she just might flip the coin so to decide which way she was to turn dead and gone and free from sin free from sin and dead and gone or up and go and here to stay with nowhere to remain

i come a long way come a long way come a long way just to say that this heart of mine is torn and it is bleeding
that this heart of mine is torn but it's still beating

-boom boom-

ain't it a shame how everytime the world comes rushing in on you comes squeezing through your open mind starts pushing you around 'round and 'round the giant wheel keeps turning in your memory just when you were about to know the words that could explain

that i miss you i miss you i wanna kiss you
hey hey beep beep hough! i'm moving in

boom boom chica boom boom chica boom boom there's a devil singing in the yard of my heart sounds like treason
boom boom chica boom boom chica boom boom

there's a devil dancing in the yard of my heart and i forget the reasons
