i save you
from your own hand
i take you
take you home and i show you
how to chase them clouds away feel that brand new day

hello darling
the tide is rising high your ship is coming in i can see it coming in and almost every single chance has oubled the joker's on your hand and everywhere is resurrection

from your own hand
i take you home and
and feel that brand new day oh yeah

but you're so tired you've been giving best of best been defying all the rest need to hold your precious breath you need to close your pretty eyes i guess you just ran out of lies wake up sweet-heart the sun is way up high drown out your sad ol' sigh with eternal jollification almost every petty doubt has vanished negation's been abolished and everywhere is resurrection-aha-ahaa

from your own hand
and greet that brand new day chase them clouds away
