Once I dreamed I lost my shoes
Then I found I'd lost my feet
Once I thought I lost my sight
Then I found I lost my vision
Once I felt I lost my soul
There I wished I'd loose my mind
I threw a coin for St. Antoine
He said: put your money in the bank
It never helped anyone
Taking a ride on this mystery train
Taking a trip to my heart is all in vain.
Don't throw a coin
Throw a stone
St. Antoine left all alone on this foolish parade

Once I dreamed I was a star
Then I found I was the whole universe
Once I thought I'd lost my pride
Then I found I'd lost the reason why
So I sang to loose my fears
When they were gone
I felt so lonely
I threw a coin for St. Antoine
He said: put your money in the bank
It never helped anyone
Taking a ride on this mystery train
Taking a trip to my heart is all in vain
Don't throw a coin
Throw a stone
St. Antoine left all alone on this foolish parade
(Instrumental)
Taking a ride on this mystery train...
Taking a trip...
