you might be knocking
knocking knocking at my door
don't you wonder, baby
you'll find me
rocking rocking
back and forth on the floor

i hear a rocking song
it'll take just as long
i need to enter the screen to walk thru the mirror
down thru that hallway
within the walls, the length of my spine

i rock for my mama rock for my papa
rock for my sister to get things right i rock when i'm lonely rock for you only
only you to hold me tight

this is a rocking song
to walk thru that mirror
i rock for my body
the feel for my body
i rock for a rhythm a reason a rhyme just sittin' there swaying pretending i'm trying when i should be fighting for

sea of time
did you learn how to swim did you learn how to move

i need to enter the scene
i rock for my freedom the feel of my freedom i rock for a passion a party a thrill now there's someone pointing at me with a finger
'cause i should be fighting for

if you don't want to drown in this muddy water you will have to move you must learn how to swim you have to have a plan i follow my own little plan and it's right here
and when i looked i saw that somebody had erased my video scrapbook and i said: shit!
is there nothing sacred anymore?
mmmmmmh
yeah, did you learn how to move and you gotta watch out for what they say 'cause they...sometimes they say:
take it easy
take it easy, now
but i know that waking up ain't f&A, A&A<Aœ easy, no when you're lonely
did you

did you learn
now, did you learn how to swim now, did you learn how to move
did you?
you wanna, you wanna drown in this muddy water muddy water here i come, huh!
i wanna drown
call me easy
say i'm strong
love me my way
it ain't wrong
ooh yeah
time
ooh
