spoken:

unforgettable - nothing is which may be a curse or may be a bliss one or the other something it'll be someone sometime may look like me

love is something
love can pass
on to another someone (who) has had a much stronger will to hold on to a something that grows cold

time is something
time can pass
and that comes close to all that it ever does throughout the year it possibly may make you a gift of the things gone astray
throughout the year it possibly may
