i know i hesitate
on a time forever more
oh, and the lies i keep
are too emotional
im trying again to tell you why that this time there really is goodbye

i can't give in again give in again can't fight no more

'cause there's a life you will find.
when you are right
by my side.

and my words are justified
but it hurts sometimes
it hurts sometimes
it hurts sometimes

i know i hesitate
on a time forever more
and the lies i keep
are too emotional.

i know it's hard to take when your world is closing in oh let your feelings be, inspirational.

i won't run from you or walk away.
but i know you're trying to make me stay

i can't give in again, give in again, i cant fight no more.

'cause there's a life you will find.
when your right
by my side.

and the words
are justified
but it hurts sometimes
it hurts sometimes
it hurts sometimes

'cause there's a life you will find.
when your right
by my side.

and the words
are justified
but it hurts sometimes
it hurts sometimes
it hurts sometimes

i know i hesitate
