I send this out to you because i care about you baby nothing left to do
no reason to doubt you cause your always on my mind

sugar plum honey dew
i love you
Baby you my
sugar plum honey dew
Girl i think i love you

yes you are my daily bread I'm giving you everything X2

a special kinda touch keeps me staying with you lady you know i like the way your hands feel when we touch and your hips when we kiss never in a rush she loves to keep me waiting girl I'll wait for you because your my

sugar plum honey dew
Baby if i want to cause i want you your my
sugar plum honey dew
is it cool baby you

yes you are my daily bread
