"Midtown Tunnel Vision"

Take good care it's a tightrope ride neon city is on the dreamers' side prime time losers going underground they take you up and they shake you down can't see nowhere
don't know, and I don't care 'cos here comes another midtown tunnel vision Sidewalk cruiser in stiletto heels frozen heart, eyes of steel wrap your body around my soul electric love is gonna take its' toll
can't see nowhere
don't know and I just don't care that girl is the mother of my midtown tunnel vision Sunset skyline night turns to day down on the street you could fade away no second chances in this here wasted life it'll cut you down like a switchblade knife
can't see nowhere
