Oh you've got a smile like a sweet lovin' angel, oh baby And you've got a heart that's made of pure gold, oh baby You've given me so much that I'm grateful of such a faithful love And it gets sweeter as the days go by, sweeter as the days go by Oh I'd be lost without you baby, now don't ever leave me 'Cause your sweet kiss turns on my sunshine, oh yeah baby At night the stars, they wink at you, I-hi-hi have seen them, baby Ah but I guess every single star knows how sweet you are You get sweeter as the days go by, sweeter, honey, as the days go by [Backing vocals, over sax solo:] Just a little sweeter, baby [x4] Now there are so many reasons for me to love you, oh baby And I'm so lucky to have you and that's no lie, no baby Yes, you're a candymaker's dream come true, and darlin', sugar has nothin' on you And you get sweeter as the days go by, sweeter as the days go by Honey, you're sweeter than honey, you're sweeter than sugar [...and fade]
