I won't go into detail, about how it felt, after you abandoned me, and left me wallowing in my misery. You left me there, in the cold, never even once having told me why you left me by myself. All I can say is now, you need a taste of what I had. That's why I want you to Feel the pain I felt inside, watching you walk by, and it wasn't with me.
You hurt me emotionally, and now you're just a memory.
And now, now I'm gone (gone) and I don't have to waste
time, waiting for someone,
I'm through loving you, it just brings me pain, and you can't stop me from sayin, I want you to feel the pain.
I want it to take you, to make you, to break you, I want it to make you cry!
I want it to hurt you, to curse you, I want it to break you down!
Time passes by so slowly. It feels as if the world stops turning round. Sometimes I wish u were here, sometimes I want you near.
But then I remember what you did, and the longing fades away.
I want you to feel the pain I felt inside,
watching you walk by, and it wasn't with me.
You hurt me emotionally, and now you're just a memory.
And now, now I'm gone (gone) and I don't have to
waste
time, waiting for someone,
I'm through loving you, it just brings me pain,
and you can't stop me from sayin, I want you to feel the
pain.
I want you to feel the pain.
Ohh feel the pain.
