

Glimmer In The Darkness

"Underwater"

Bubbles appear, everywhere
Shinin light above the surface,
Fish swim past my goggles, there's
So many now.
I see an underwater city, and I'm off to explore, the
depths of the ocean.
I'm awakened by the sunlight, fallin asleep under the waves, catchin a breath every once in a while.
Goin back under, to enjoy the scenery.
I see an underwater city, and I'm off to explore, the
depths of the ocean.
I'm doing what you told me I could never do! I'm here, at last, doin what I feel is right. Don't try to dissuade me, it's not gonna work. MY heart is in it, you know!
I see an underwater city, and I'm off to explore, the depths of the ocean. I see an underwater city, and I'm off to explore, the depths of the ocean. I see an underwater city, and I'm off to explore, the depths of the ocean.
I see it underwater, underwater, underwaterrrrrrr.
