I picture you in black and white Falling through through the night
you're not even scared, but don't forget to breathe I wish you've been the way I do all wrapped up things to do but I can't stand to see we forget to breathe and it can make your heart stop it can make your heart stop
we're all shake when the feeling comes we're all fade towards the dawn but you were never scared no you were never scared it's time to let the explosions in my heart leave me out to meet you in the end
and it can make your heart stop

and it will make your heart stop if we ain't make it through the night
yea it will make your heeeaaaaart stop (it will make your heart stop)
theres nobody else taking you through this nobody else taking through this nobody else nobody else nobody else but you
