In the wave of life,
I'll be crying at your feet,
On the corner praying
If you're meant to stay inside your beating chest.
In the end of time,
It's not even gonna fly
I'm already there
'Cause I never know how to liberate.

In the waves,
I'll see you hit the waves, yeah.
In the waves,
I'll meet you in the waves.

In the wave of life
I'm gonna let you live the way
On the corner light
Would you let me stay inside your holding chest.

In the waves,
I know it will hit the waves.
In the waves,
I'll meet you in the waves.

It's been going on too long now, let it heal
Another reaches gonna throw
Is all around let me go, let it heal.

It's something buried deep inside shaking me
We're gonna let it grow cold
'Cause we hardly ever speak to what we feel.

2 x Chorus:
In the waves,
I know it will hit the waves.
In the waves,
I'll meet you in the waves
