Think back
How did we get here?
Don't you remember?
No one ever does.

Stuck in a world
Where physics don't apply
You are in control
Or so you think.

This landscape,
Littered with memories,
Reminds you of who you are,
What you want,
And what you can't have.

Minutes feel like hours
Hours feel like years

True fears are realised
But the most terrifying thing is
Not knowing you can't escape what's in your head
You can't escape from your mind

Time to wake up,
And face yours.

Wake up, open your eyes, look around.
In the back of your mind, it haunts you.
It will never end.
Fight the flashbacks, it never ends
Recall.
Think back, how did we get here?
Don't you remember?
No one ever does.
