"Father Of Your Sins"

I raised you up, gave you all you wanted
I gave you success and now you betray.
With your revelations you're hurting only you
I catch you lying here in my hands.
You're searching for the answer,
But you're running out of time.

I am untouchable, you know it.
I am the father of your sins.
I am the god of all my people,
I am the law you will obey.

Now tell me what is wrong in your mind.
I will protect you as long as you don't fight.
I'll even teach you that gods can never die
But if you fool me you will die, yes you will die.
Don't matter you're my blood, son,
You're going down with me.

I am untouchable, you know it.
I am the father of your sins.
I am the god of all my people,
I am the law you will obey.

I face the fact I might not see my son again,
If I could change I'd still do it all again.

I am untouchable, you know it.
I am the father of your sins.
I am the god of all my people,
I am the law you will obey.

I am untouchable, you know it.
I am the father of your sins.
I am the god of all my people,
I am the law you will obey.
