Do you know your daughter well and do you know she's dreaming

Do you know your daughter well, talk to her soon

Do you know your daughter well and do you know she's
dreaming

You know as well as I she stays higher than the moon

And do you know your sister well and did you know she's drinking

Do you know your sister well, talk to her soon

Do you know your sister well, you know I think she's losing

You know as well as I she stays higher than the moon

Thanks for the information

Thanks but no thanks for the information

Thanks but no thanks for the information

'Cause information's got your number too

And do you know your brother well and the company he's keeping

Do you know your brother well, talk to him tonight

Do you know your brother well, he's very very strange they tell

Probably he'll go to hell unless you steer him right

CHORUS

Well yes I know my daughter well and yes I know she's dreaming

Yes I know my sister well, that's the way it goes

I know my sister all too well, yes I know she's drinking

How do I bitch at her for something she already knows?

And yes I know my brother well and the company he's keeping

Yes I know my brother well, he sings a different tune

Yes I know my brother well, I've heard it said he's queer as hell

Pray that he's in love as well, higher than the moon
