Well ever since Iâ€™ve walked Iâ€™ve heard men talk about the one that got away
Iâ€™ve heard old men call
Iâ€™ve seen young men crawl
For the one that got away
And in their darkest hours
You can hear them say
Iâ€™d give all I got
For just one more shot
At the one that got away

I was born on a Tuesday morningâ€™
On a blue wet sunny day
I grew up fast
And I grew up crazy
And I didnâ€™t have a lot to say
But I could feel it comin
Closer every day
And I grew older watchinâ€™
Over my shoulder
For the one that got away

My daddy taught me how to work for a livinâ€™
And my mama taught me how to pray
After twenty years of school
I was still a blame fool
Hadnâ€™t learned about the worldâ€™s ways
Lookinâ€™ for a rainbow
And a place where I could stay
But more and more
I was lookinâ€™ for
The one that got away

Well I did this And I did that
And I guess I did okay
I did whatever I had to do
And I did it in my own way
Whatever hand I drew
Whatever hand I played
From place to place
I come face to face
With the one that got away

Well when I stop
And one day I'll stop
And decide to put it all away
When I total up my winnings
And my losings for the day
Nothing is for certain
Or more certain I will say
In my wildest dreams
There's nothing I've seen
Like the one that got away
