dreamin' in my sleep
about the people that I meet everyone that's go
a ticket to ride
everyone was there
every one aware
the angels and the devils were out on the town
we rocked the house last night

well we don't know
where we're goin'
and we won't 'til we arrive anything can happen
when worlds collide

turn me onto your wilder side

back when we were young green and open eyed you were the queen of everything my love for you bona fide the journey is the destination we're takin' a trip through time we'll see the world
and the flesh together we can be home by suppertime

where we're goin'...
