"Window"

takin' in the sights
from my window seat
from the Third World poor to the land of the free back at home it's tony night in Tinseltown you know it don't mean nothin' to the down and out

from my window
window to the world
from my window
window to the world

some people born
with a Bible in their hand spend their life and money lookin' for the promised land some people only know what they see on tv
some people say it's just part of the plan

Chorus

lookin' out my window
on a busy street below
three in the morning
someone somewhere's
takin' a blow
the girls move in circles and the drunks spin in loops there's a jinxed walk to nowhere that the dealers do
and it's a tightrope
just don't look down
every day in life we're walkin'
that shadow line

Chorus
