

Rains "Wait"

Visit "Wait" on MotoLyrics.com

Act as if no one sees your Deception
You know it will ruin you
Turn a blind eye there all misconceptions
You take everyone for fools
You try so hard but your fear of rejection means your gonna be the one to lose
If you convince yourself, just convince yourself
To wait for just a minute longer
Hold off and it will only make you stronger
And wait for just a moment longer
We all are walking toward the fire
Act as if no one sees your true colors
You think where all under you
Like a slap in the face
Your dishonesty gathers around us and fools
You try so hard but your fear of rejection
means your gonna be the one to lose
If you convince yourself, just convince yourself
To wait for just a minute longer
Hold off and it will only make you stronger
And wait for just a moment longer
We all are walking toward the fire
