"Make It Right"

How many times have you cut only to feel no pain
How many days have you run only to crawl
How many nights did you scream only to scream in vain
How many years till you face the shame of it all

Into a fire you fall
If only you could make it right
Stand up and fight for resolve
If only you can make it right

How many lies did you steal just to convince the fool
How many masks did you wear disguise and remove How many years till you break all that keeps breaking you
How many tears will you waste while finding the truth.

Into a fire you fall
If only you could make it right
Stand up and fight for resolve
If only you can make it right

Into the fire you fall
If only you could make it right
Stand up and fight for resolve
If only you can make it right

There comes a time (Ohhh)
When one must decide (Ohhh)
The life they are living is far from true
Lost and deceived (Ohhh)
Not fit to believe (Ohhh)
I know I have so much I have yet to prove [x2]
I've yet to prove

Into a fire you fall
If only you could make it right
Stand up and fight for resolve
If only you can make it right
Into a fire you fall

If only you could make it right
Stand up and fight for resolve
If only you can make it right
(ooooohhhh yeahhhh....)

There will come a time
Only you can make it right
Only you can make it right
